Brentwood Camera Club Mounts Sacred Places Exhibition at Otter Creek Church

Brentwood, TN August 2, 2008 – The Brentwood Camera Club will be mounting an Exhibition of Photography based on the theme: Sacred Places. The Opening Reception will be held at the Otter Creek Church August 13th from 5:30 pm -7 pm. The reception will occur in conjunction with the church's Musical Conversations series where Rocketown recording artist/songwriter, Shaun Groves, will be performing at 7 pm. The community is invited to this gala of art and music.

A well-respected panel of three jurors poured over a large submission of photographs to select thirty images for the exhibit. Jurist, Terry Bates, said, "The quality of the photography for the exhibit is impressive; something you would associate more with an artist community than a camera club. The selection process was no easy task." Otter Creek associate minister, Doug Sanders, is pleased as well. "We are always looking to communicate and relate to our community. We think the Sacred Places exhibit and the Musical Conversations series will touch hearts, get your feet tapping and put a smile on your face. What better way to spend time with your neighbors?"

The photography exhibit will run through October 31st and the Musical Conversations series through August 27th. Details for the Exhibit can be found on the Brentwood Camera Club's website www.brentwoodcameraclub.org.
